

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

APPLICATION DOCUMENTS

<Specified Application Form>

Q: Can I add pages to the format?

A: You can add pages, but be aware that the maximum attachment size including publications is 50MB.

Q: Can I list papers to be published as research achievement?

A: If the papers are accepted, you can list them as research achievement with a note such as "to be published".

<Language>

Q: Do you accept application documents written in a language other than Japanese or English?

A: Application documents must be written in Japanese or English.

<Main Research Papers>

Q: Should submitted papers be written in English or Japanese?

A: Papers written in other languages are acceptable if you submit English or Japanese abstracts along with them.

Q: Can I submit doctoral dissertation as main research achievements?

A: Doctoral dissertation is acceptable if you consider it as your main research achievement.

<Revision of submitted info and documents>

Q: There are mistakes in my personal information and the documents I submitted. Can I revise it?

A: Replacement of submitted info and documents is possible. Re-enter all the items in the registration form with the PIN number you have set at the previous registration. The deadline of changing is the same as Application closing date.

Q: I cannot revise submitted information, as I forgot my PIN number.

A: Resetting PIN, please contact us through the inquiry form on Recruitment Information page with your name and application NO. .

<Application deadline>

Q: Can you accept my application after the deadline?

A: No application after the deadline is acceptable for any reason.